(MR. SPEAKER)
an amendment may be moved that the Report be referred back to the Committee either without limitation or with reference to any particular matter. I take it that Sri Narasimhan wants that the Report should be referred back with reference to certain particular matters and in that case he has a right to move the amendments.

Sri K. S. SURYANARAYANA RAO.—I made a request to the Mover of the amendment that these be taken tomorrow. I want to know if he has agreed to.

Mr. SPEAKER.—No, it cannot be done. So, I put the amendment of Sri Narasimhan to the House. The question is:

"That the date '16th' as against the Mysore Court Fees and Suits Valuation Bill be changed to '17th' and that the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation (Amendment) Bill, 1957 be taken up on 16th instead of on 18th."

The motion was negatived.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I will now put the Report of the Business Advisory Committee to the House.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA (Palaiyam).—I have moved another amendment that at least five hours be allotted for discussion of Court Fees and Suits Valuation Bill.

Mr. SPEAKER.—That cannot be done. The whole Report will have to be referred back to the Committee with reference to certain matters and not a particular item in the Report. So, I will put the Report to the House. The question is:

"That the Report of the Business Advisory Committee be adopted."

The motion was adopted.
